Council takes realistic look at budget

By Robert Linn

Drayton Valley Town Council is taking a hard and realistic look at the Town's operating budget for 1980. Mayor David Labranche told the Western Review Monday.

Department heads will review their budgets to take expenditures. Mayor Labranche said.

Added whether it will be a temporary budget, Mayor Labranche said. "We are trying to strike a happy medium. As far as cutting back expenditures to the point that it would have a significant impact on the 1980 budget, it would mean reducing services. I wouldn't like to see that happen."

However, Mayor Labranche said, now area council has to explore in how to improve administrative efficiency as well as save money by controlling paper work.

Regarding the 1980 budget, Mayor Labranche said, "We are not making a decision yet. We want to make it more realistic on last revenue rather than relying heavily on construction profits."

"One of the things we have to do is to make sure we have the Municipal Affairs Department will do a general assessment for us. Through this general assessment, the Town hopes to arrive at a balance between residential and industrial taxes. Currently, the industrial taxes are the highest of revenue. Mayor Labranche said. "We want to make it more realistic on last revenue rather than relying heavily on construction profits."

Alder Flats man sentenced for impaired driving

An Alder Flats man was sentenced to three months imprisonment Jan. 29 because of what provincial Judge R.J. Pung called his "very serious" drinking problem.

Bruce Wehshah, 41, was charged with three separate counts of impaired driving last year, and Judge Pung ordered a pre-sentence report on the man before he would sentence him.

"I think you have got a very serious problem, and worst of all, you don't recognize that," he said to Wehshah. He said a fine would not be an adequate punishment as Wehshah "won't be able to pay it anyway," nor would probation be suitable in this case, the judge said.

The increased fines a driver's license suspension of three years "and it may be longer," Judge Pung said.

"It is best that you take an actively long look at your drinking problem," he said.

Wehshah indicated he may appeal the judge's decision.

A Violet Grove man was fined $200 for possession of a narcotic in the morning of court.

Shawn Peter Turner, 19, of Violet Grove, was found to be in possession of a bottle of hashish oil when a search was made by the RCMP Jan. 1.

The court learned that Turner had taken a marijuana from the Drayton Valley Jail Club Dec. 27.

Political forum will feature four speakers

A fourth candidate has confirmed attendance at a federal election forum in Drayton Valley and the forum dates have been delayed until 7:00 p.m. Thursday.

Bruce Fidler, an independent candidate from Hinton, will attend, along with Liberal Leader Brian Mulroney, NDP Leader Michael Macnaughton, and Conservative candidate Joe Clark.

The 1980 candidate, Robert Brown, an independent with ties to the Billingsville Party, was unable to attend due to his own commitments.

The Feb. 7 forum will begin at hour later than announced last week, as organizers hope to encourage a large attendance.

Attendance participants in the form of questions to candidates will be welcomed. The question period will follow speeches and rebuttals by all speakers.

The forum, co-sponsored by Drayton Valley Legion and Chamber of Commerce, will take place in the Legion Hall.

The Town of Drayton Valley Requires a Clerk—Typist Receptionist for the Town Detachment of the R.C.M. Police

The successful candidate will be required to pass the present security check.

Applicants to own handwriting will be accepted at the Town Administration office until the end of business hours on the 22nd of February, 1980.

Salary: Job description, and application forms may be obtained at the Town Administration office.

Drayton Valley's first male nurse, Len Hewlett, in office making for a doctor. Once a hospital clerk and volunteer.

Male nurse is a sportsman

By Richard Lane

Most men are nurses in Drayton Valley's General Hospital, Mr. Hewlett is a nurse.

Before coming to Drayton Valley in June, 1978, he was a staff nurse at the St. Joseph's Hospital in Medicine Hat.

There he played football and trained his own intermediate hockey team.

During his six years in Medicine Hat, he was a volunteer fireman. He was also secretary of Medicine Hat's Lions Club.

Arrival with a degree in psychology from the University of Alberta in 1971, Mr. Hewlett began working in the psychiatric unit of Lethbridge Municipal Hospital in 1972.

A nurse of Lethbridge, he wanted to be a doctor before taking up nursing. But after a year of pre-medical studies at the University of Lethbridge, he found nursing interesting as well as rewarding.

When he graduated from Lethbridge Community College, he was one of 87 male RNs in Alberta. Now the number of male nurses in the province totals "approximately 900 at the very most," Mr. Hewlett estimates.

"Some people were surprised," said Mr. Hewlett, regarding his decision to be a nurse.

The first male nurse in Drayton Valley, Mr. Hewlett said he is being treated as "one of the boys" by his colleagues. He was also the first male nurse in Medicine Hat, but he was just one of eight male nurses when he was on the staff of Lethbridge Municipal Hospital, and that was because of his psychiatric unit.

"Until 1967, psychiatric nursing was predominantly a male domain," said Mr. Hewlett. "Strength was then required in a psychiatric setting, as the use of tranquilizers only became more widespread in the late 1960s. Now there are few violent psychiatric patients," Mr. Hewlett said.

Mr. Hewlett does not find any difficulty in relating to male and female patients. The local hospital's greatest problem is equal salaries of male and female patients.

"Generally speaking," Mr. Hewlett said, "female patients are more demanding in their need for medical care."

Some mistakes for a nurse, Mr. Hewlett said, "People don't realize there are male nurses. It's surprising."

Evansburg establishes anniversary committee

By Mary Cumming
The Village of Evansburg has received a $14,500 grant from the provincial government for the celebration of Alberta's 75th anniversary celebration.

On Jan. 28, approximately 50 percent of the Village Office with Lisa Thorne, a member of the Alberta 75th Anniversary Committee to discuss the anniversary and application of the grant.

There was representation from the Village Council, Alberta Recreation and Wildlife, Royal Canadian Legion No. 196 and the Ladies' Auxiliary; E-S-Letter; the Drayton Valley Agriculture and Horticulture Society; the Drayton Valley Chamber Society; the Drayton Valley Fire Department and the Historical Society.

Various proposals were suggested. However, it was decided that the first step was to form a committee which is to be made up of representatives from the above-mentioned organizations. Paul Conrad volunteered to be committee chairman.

The members were asked to refer the matter to their respective groups for discussion. It is hoped they will have some suggestions to convey when the committee meets in the Village Office on Feb. 20 at 7 p.m.

At every stage in the development of this project, the committee is open to suggestions or questions from any person. Proposals and questions can be submitted directly to Mr. Conrad.

Public use of the community van was also discussed.

The 12 passenger vehicle is to be used for Evansburg during March, April, May and June. It is at the disposal of groups or individuals.

The charge is 10 cents per kilometer, but the renters have to supply the gasoline required and to provide a qualified driver. Regarding bookings, Dr. Conrad was reached at 727-3735 or 727-5899.

Establishment of a consultation board to converse contact talks between the United Nurses of Alberta (UNA) and the Alberta Hospital Association some time in mid-February is recommended by committee member John Peters in his report.

Mr. Peters' report has been presented to the UNA and the AHA by Labor Minister Lee Young, said Mrs. Mollie Swartz, president of UNA Local 58, this week.

Forty-eight items remain in dispute, she added. The AHA has not yet made any reply offer.

UNA Local 58 represents 35 registered nurses who are on the staff of Drayton Valley General Hospital. Representing more than 6,000 registered nurses in the province, UNA is at the maximum wage of a staff nurse has increased to $11.21 per hour from the current rate of $5.95 per hour.

Wildlife, Royal Canadian Legion No. 196 and the Ladies' Auxiliary; E-S-Letter; the Drayton Valley Agriculture and Horticulture Society; the Drayton Valley Chamber Society; the Drayton Valley Fire Department and the Historical Society.

Various proposals were suggested. However, it was decided that the first step was to form a committee which is to be made up of representatives from the above-mentioned organizations. Paul Conrad volunteered to be committee chairman.

The members were asked to refer the matter to their respective groups for discussion. It is hoped they will have some suggestions to convey when the committee meets in the Village Office on Feb. 20 at 7 p.m.

At every stage in the development of this project, the committee is open to suggestions or questions from any person. Proposals and questions can be submitted directly to Mr. Conrad.

Public use of the community van was also discussed.

The 12 passenger vehicle is to be used for Evansburg during March, April, May and June. It is at the disposal of groups or individuals.

The charge is 10 cents per kilometer, but the renters have to supply the gasoline required and to provide a qualified driver. Regarding bookings, Dr. Conrad was reached at 727-3735 or 727-5899.

Living with refugees easier than expected

By Richard Liles
"It was easier than anticipated," said Carl Goertz, regarding living with three Vietnamese refugees whom they first arrived.

"They were shocked, but we welcomed them as a traumatic experience for them," said Mr. Goertz, a Tomahawk dairy farmer. In their early 20's, the refugees have been living with the Goertz family since Feb. 15, three days after their arrival in Edmonton from refugee camps in Malaysia.

They are Phao (pre-named) Fox, 23; Thien (24), and Long (25). Of the trio, Phao is the only one who is married, but his wife and their one-year-old daughter are still in Vietnam.

Sponsored by a group called the Tomahawk Sisters, the refugees have been attending English classes as soon as they arrived. Individual tuition is provided by the Tomahawk school teachers. The classes are held once a week.

At the Goertz house, the volunteer practice what they have learned as well as teaching their own children the language.

Mr. Goertz said they were fortunate to find employment "almost instantly" on their arrival.

Then and Phao work at the Lonsdale Feed Mill plant five miles east of Havelock. Long works for Calgary Power Ltd., in the Sundance plant.

They are quite capable of running a milking machine which is a complicated thing. They learned how to run it by observation. The Goertz family is a "bilingual" family, and Mr. Goertz.

To provide transportation for the three refugees, the sponsors run a "skitole" service between the Goertz house and the refugees' place of work.

Welcomed guests

Dedication service at Kingdom Hall

By Dorothy Gervais
Phone 542-2248

On Jan. 12, 126 persons gathered at the Kingdom Hall in Breton for the Jehovah's Witnesses' dedication service.

The program began with a review of the history of the Jehovah's Witnesses in the area. It was followed by a photographic slide presentation showing the construction of the new Kingdom Hall.

The dedication address was delivered by R. Aronson, a travelling representative of the Watchtower Society. He said that while Jehovah's Witnesses are active and enjoy having a fine building in which to assemble for worship, their main concern is building a healthy, spiritual relationship with the heavenly Father.

Church services were held in the Breton Kingdom Hall on Jan. 20. Rev. C.K. Dawkins of Drayton Valley conducted the service. This was also the annual meeting and officers were appointed to serve on the Board for the next year.

The next regular service will be March 2 at 8:30 p.m. Members were pleased to learn that Mr. Dawkins will be holding services each month in Breton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ross, accompanied by Mrs. Catharine Ross, have just returned from a very pleasant trip to British Columbia where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibbs in Oliver.

White Jim and Kay made a short trip to the United States, California, visiting with her many friends in Oliver and a vacation in played bridge. They report the scenery of the state in the winter time is as beautiful as it is in the summer. There were good along the road and the weather was just what they needed. They saw many, many, and photos along the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ellis have their little nephews James and Eric. They are visiting with them for two weeks while their parents, James and Emily, are enjoying a Caribbean cruise.

Mrs. Eva Doreling spent several days in Edmonton visiting with her daughter Muri and family.

Week-long action for Peewees, Bantams

By Brenda Hingst

Minor Hockey Week in Drayton Valley was filled with action and the Peewees and Bantams were no exception.

The Sunshine Ford Pee wees played Jan. 27 with a game against Lamboke. The Alstars were the eventual winners, taking the game by a 3-1 count.

Following the opening ceremonies Jan. 21, the Bantams played 10 West in Pee wee house league action. But were down to defeat 4-0.

As the week went on, the game against Lamboke Jan. 22, with 10 West, 7-0. The game was a close one, with the Alstars winning 7-0.

In further Pee wee action, Bantams and the Elks were paired against each other, with Bantams coming out on top 5-1.

In other games, Elks and 10 West played in a 3-2 tie, and Bantams was defeated by Lamboke 6-2.

All this action led to the Pee wee final between Lamboke and 10 West, with the final score 6-3 for Lamboke.

In other Pee wee action, the Sunshine Ford Pee wees played Punks in a previously scheduled game. This encounter, played Jan. 23, saw Sunshine defeat Punks 6-5 in a game in which both teams played well.

The Sunshine Ford Pee wees Alstars were again on the ice Jan. 28 as they travelled to Camrose for a game they narrowly won 6-5.

Jan. 27 the Sunshine Ford Pee wees landed on the skates for a game in Rocky Mountain House, and were defeated 5-2, with Bill Davidson scoring two goals in a losing effort.

In Bantam action during the week, Parkland easily defeated Winfield 12-0, with Rick Thorne scoring four goals for Parkland.

Nordic skiing is popular

Increasing numbers about fitness along with programs in leadership, programs and equipment have made Nordic skiing one of the most popular outdoor sports.

Alberta Winter Games general sport advisor Ewa Chausi estimates participation in cross country skiing has quadrupled in the last five years.

An old cross country skier, Chausi of Grande Prairie has about 1,000 km a year. Nordic skiing is close to the best endurance sport you'll find, he says.

The Alberta Games Council is adding facilities for the growing interest in the sport, adds Chausi. The 1980 Winter Games offers athletes over 13 years of age an alternative to recreation at cross country skiing through competitive events.

"The only skier who can't compete after those on previous years."

As a result of new equipment with more well-worn cross country skis, instead of the traditional 10 to 15 winter games in the winter games in Grande Prairie Feb. 28, 29.

and March 1. Zone 5 coordinator Arlene Monaghan rates cross country skiing competition from three to five stars as "first class". Zone 5 development programs are underway in cross country development of cross country skis.

More gymnasts today

Gymnastics has been widely recognized in recent years due to "public interest and organizational interest," says provincial gymnastics advisor to the Alberta Winter Games Council, Jim Jarrell.

In the past year the number of registered clubs has increased from 22 to 28 and memberships in all clubs have almost doubled.

Jarrell, a Canadian Gymnastics Federation member, says the sport has gained considerable interest in the sport by involving more athletes, coaches and officials in local and provincial competitions.

A total of 96 gymnasts are expected to participate in the 1980 Alberta Winter Games in Grande Prairie, Feb. 28, 29 and March 1.

The popularity of gymnastics is based on its "individual nature" says Jarrell. The sport can provide fast and interesting, for the game competitor, self-discipline, flexibility and strength.

Wendell and G. Albert areas have shown substantial interest in The Games. Gymnastics competitions and Zone 5's rural residents are beginning to express interest in the sport.

In the past some areas have indicated shortages of equipment and leadership were hampering their ability to develop the all-around gymnast needed to compete on Alberta teams.

Norette Oilers won, lost

The Norette Oilers traveled to Red Deer for their last championship game against the Huskies. "A" team Jan. 25 and although they played well, the score was 5-0 for Red Deer.

In other league action, the Oilers played host to Wetaskiwin Jan. 27, who turned out to be a real crowd pleaser. The Oilers, who decided to buckle down and play some serious hockey, won the contest 4-2. It was a good passing game and the score proved it. Greg Turvian started off the scoring with an assist from Darvo Kwanakowski in the first 20 minutes of the game. At the 3:00 minute mark, Wetaskiwin answered back, slipped one past the Oilers' goaltender Chris Costa and scored.

One minute later Dean McGraw gave the crowd what looked like a replay of his first goal which made the score 4-1.

Then with five minutes left in the first period, Greg Turvian scored with an assist from Larry Gortman and Darvo McGraw.

With one minute gone in the second period, Larry Gortman blasted one from the blue line and scored the Oilers' fifth goal of the game with an assist from Paul Raden.

Darvo McGraw scored the first unanswered goal with an assist from Neil Suffern. Nine minutes later Greg Turvian scored his third goal of the game with an assist from Larry Gortman and Darvo McGraw.

Winning up the scoring in the second period was Wetaskiwin settling a new stage together for the first time in a significant way. It is being performed in a house of all over the province in Alberta's "The Highway."

The Oilers were four minutes short and showed early lead advantage, scoring 17 goals. The Oilers managed only one goal in return, scored by Jim Hughes and assisted by Greg Turvian.

Feb. 2 it was the Oilers playing host to Canmore and it was a totally different story in this game.

The Oilers were back in the lead, and scored a 5-4 victory.

Dean McGraw scored the first goal, assisted by Chris Costa. In the second period, Jim Hughes scored with the Oilers leading 2-1. Canmore replied at the 11 minute mark and again one minute later.

Thirteen minutes into the second period Canmore scored goals which made the score 3-3 for Canmore.

Answering for the Oilers was Greg Turvian which tied the game going into the third period.

Starting off the scoring in the third was Jim Hughes with an assist from Greg Turvian. Canmore then came from behind and tied it again at the 15 minute mark of the final period.

Audition results awaited

Performers throughout the province are awaiting the results of millions for the Alberta Games production of "Collette Alberta," a salute to the authors of Alberta.

Colorado Alberta is one of the few cultural events which will have a significant impact on the year's Alberta Winter Games being held in Grande Prairie February 20, 21, and March 1.

Auditions were held in Lethbridge, Calgary, Grande Prairie, Edmonton and St. Paul. More than 25 groups or individuals signed up for the auditions.

The show is being produced in conjunction with the Alberta Path Arts Council and Alberta Culture. It will depict how early settlers celebrated and had fun while settling a new stage together for the first time in a significant way. It is being performed in a house of all over the province in Alberta's "The Highway."

At political forum

Candidates spar on policies, issues

By Brenda Kligoch

It was every man for himself and party against party as three of the five candidates running in the Drayton Valley constituency participated in a public forum Thursday night at the Legion Hall.

New Democratic Party (NDP) candidate Laird Mitchell, Liberal Laurie Dufour and David Kligoch, representing the Progressive Conservative Party, were unable to attend the forum. It was co-sponsored by the Drayton Valley Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion and the Drayton Valley Chamber of Commerce.

In his opening remarks to the crowd of more than 30 people, Mitchell focused on the representation. Prime Minister Clark has given the riding. He criticized Clark for not attending his constituency meeting and said the PM was not representing the people.

Mitchell said Clark was more concerned with the oil situation. "The riding is too large and too diverse" for an MP who is "puffing the oil companies," Mitchell added.

He said the riding "needs a constituency man... needs an MP that can act on behalf of its citizens.

Mitchell also criticized the Conservative party, saying the Tories do not "understand" their policies, but that the NDP has been steadily implementing policies on a provincial level and is a lower degree on a federal level.

By far, Kligoch spoke next, taking the opportunity to outline briefly the Tories' policies on energy and agriculture, and the role Clark has played in the constituency.

Kligoch said as an MP, Clark has done "first-class constituency work," considering he is also the prime minister, and that he has turned the riding around.

Turning to energy, Kligoch said the Tories are "trying to encourage people to research and develop alternative energy sources."

He said Conservatives are "committed to raising oil prices," and Canadians have to understand the higher prices are necessary for future development of energy.

Could it be a UFO?

Light baffles witnesses

Two Drayton Valley residents were still baffled by a phenomenon they witnessed Wednesday.

"I don't know what the hell it was," Gerry Desnoes, 59, told the Western Review. "It was something I've never seen before."

Mr. Desnoes said he was in the vicinity of the Wabigoon Wall Apartments on 48 Ave. when he spotted a red-orange light at 7:01 P.M.

"It looked like an aircraft light. It was 25 to 30 degrees above the horizon. It was about the size of a 'planet'."

The object was travelling in a southeast-northwest direction, Mr. Desnoes said. "I just got out of my car."

Mr. Desnoes said the object became brighter but within a second "it just lit straight down and disappeared."

Then, the object lit two or three seconds later, another spark out away from it and it fell straight down.

After that the object lit all at its light and "it was all gone within two or three seconds."

From start to finish, the phenomenon lasted approximately 10 seconds, Mr. Desnoes estimated.

Detailing the unusual occurrence, Mr. Jones, 74, said: "As first it appeared to be a light from a plane. But I was certain it was not."

He said he was travelling toward the north. It seemed to me it was over Fothergill's library."

Because of its brightness, the light appeared to be "beaming away from us," Mr. Jones said. "The brightness became more intense, he continued."

Then I saw a light dropped within a second. Another light dropped a couple of seconds later. And a couple of lights were flashed out."

Finally, Mr. Jones said: "It's certainly UFO. I can't identify it."

Both Mr. Desnoes and Mr. Jones have never seen such a phenomenon before. They are wondering who their other residents have seen what they saw Wednesday.

Prime Minister Joe Clark will vote in Jasper at 9:30 a.m. on election day Feb. 18, but he will be in the Spruce Grove Arena to watch the election results on television that evening.

A fire causing his vote in Jasper, Mr. Clark will proceed to Hinton, Grande Cache, Fort Chip and Spruce Hills, neither prevailing.

He is scheduled to arrive in Spruce Grove late in the afternoon. He will address the gathering in the arena once the election results are known, said Lyle Wilson, media chairman of the Clark campaign.

A Progressive Conservative "headquarters" will be set up in the arena, Mr. Wilson said. Results for the 303 ridings across the nation will be posted at the headquarters, he added.

Events planned for the evening will include a stage show by local entertainers, the Kamdian Review, Drayton Valley dancers, Italian and French Canadian folk dancers, a PC band, and a Highland pipe and dance group.

Clayton Schuler, manager of Radman Flowers, puts the finishing touches on a special floral arrangement available for Valentine's Day.

Valentine's delight

In good shape now

Town's RCMP will need more staff

For the present, the RCMP detachment responsible for patrolling the town is in good shape, Sergeant G.A. Schaefer told Drayton Valley Town Council Thursday.

But council should plan to increase the detachment's staff by one officer next year, added Sgt. Schaefer, detachment commander.

"It seems Drayton Valley is not unlike any other town down here," the sergeant said. "It's nice to know we don't have ropes and murders on a city basis."

The town's contract with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police calls for six officers and one secretary. The detachment's staffing ratio is one police officer per every 800 residents.

With a staff totaling 15 which includes two secretaries, the detachment also covers the rural area. Staff for its rural operations consists of five officers and one secretary.

The detachment covers the rural area which stretches from Tomahawk to Highway 22, from Berryman to the Black Creek road, and from the Braemar Dam to Cynthia and 50 miles of that hamlet.

In 1979 the detachment handled substantially more complaints than it did the previous year, Sgt. Schaefer said. All occurrences brought to the town's attention are reviewed completely.

Complaints received by the detachment totalled 2,227 in 1977, 4,623 in 1978, and 6,568 in 1979.

The number of prisoners increased to 740 in 1979 from 593 in 1977. A total of 630 persons were imprisoned in 1979.

Accidents within town limits almost doubled last year, compared with 1978. "It's the traffic congestion in the downtown area," Sgt. Schaefer said.

"Prosecution under the Highway Traffic Act didn't prevent accidents."

Only repeatable motor vehicle accidents are recorded by the police. They refer to accidents in which injury is caused or when the damage exceeds $500.

Motor vehicle accidents that occurred in town totalled 125 in 1977, 197 in 1978, and 325 in 1979. Charges laid under the Highway Traffic Act totalled 598 in 1977, 120 in 1978, and 867 last year.

Offences under the Liquor Act remained "fairly constant," Sgt. Schaefer said.
